10. Personal collection of the Product by the Customer is free.

§ 11

The right to withdraw from the contract

1. The consumer may withdraw from the Sales Agreement within 14 days without giving any reason.

2. The time limit specified in para. 1 begins with the delivery of the Product to the Consumer or a person designated by him other than the carrier.

3. In the case of a Contract that covers many Products that are delivered separately, in batches or in parts, the deadline indicated in paragraph 1 runs from the delivery of the last item, batch or part. 4. In the case of an Agreement which involves the regular delivery of Products for a limited period (subscription), the deadline indicated in paragraph 1 runs from taking possession of the first item.

5. The consumer may withdraw from the contract by submitting to the Seller a statement of withdrawal from the contract. To meet the deadline for withdrawing from the Contract, it is sufficient for the Consumer to send a statement before this deadline.

6. The statement can be sent by traditional mail, fax or electronically by sending the statement to the Seller's e-mail address or by submitting the statement on the Seller's website - the Seller's contact details are specified in § 3. The statement may also be submitted on a form, which is a template Annex 1 to these Regulations and the Annex to the Act of 30 May 2014 on consumer rights, but it is not mandatory.

7. If the Consumer sends a statement electronically, the Seller will immediately send the Consumer the confirmation of receipt of the statement of withdrawal from the Agreement to the e-mail address provided by the Consumer.

8. Effects of withdrawal from the Agreement:

In the event of withdrawal from a Distance Contract, the Contract is considered null and void.

In the event of withdrawal from the Contract, the Seller shall immediately return to the Consumer, no later than within 14 days from the date of receipt of the Consumer's statement on withdrawal from the Contract, all payments made by him, including the costs of delivery, except for additional costs resulting from the method of delivery chosen by the Consumer. other than the cheapest usual delivery method offered by the Seller.

The seller will refund the payment using the same payment methods that were used by the consumer in the original transaction, unless the consumer has expressly agreed to another solution that will not involve any costs for him.

The Seller may withhold reimbursement until receipt of the Product back or until proof of its return is provided to him, whichever occurs first.

The Consumer should return the Product to the Seller's address given in these Regulations immediately, no later than 14 days from the day on which he informed the Seller about withdrawal from the Agreement. The deadline will be met if the Consumer sends the Product back within 14

The consumer bears the direct costs of returning the Product, including the costs of returning the Product if, due to its nature, the Product could not be returned by ordinary mail.

The consumer is only responsible for reducing the value of the Product resulting from using it in a different way than was necessary to establish the nature, characteristics and functioning of the Product.

9. In the event that due to the nature of the Product, it cannot be returned by regular mail, information about this, as well as the cost of returning the Product, will be in the description of the Product in the Store.

10. The right to withdraw from a distance contract is not entitled to the Consumer in relation to the Contract:

in which the subject of the service is a non-prefabricated item, manufactured according to the Consumer's specifications or serving to satisfy his individual needs, in which the subject of the service is an item delivered in a sealed package, which after opening the package cannot be returned due to health protection or hygiene reasons, if the packaging was opened after delivery, in which the subject of the service is an item subject to rapid deterioration or having a short shelf life, for the provision of services, if the Seller has fully performed the service with the express consent of the Consumer, who was informed before the beginning of the service that after the performance of the service by the Seller, he will lose the right to withdraw from the Contract, in which the price or remuneration depends on fluctuations in the financial market over which the Seller has no control, and which may occur before the deadline to withdraw from the Contract, in which the subject of the service are things that after delivery, due to their nature, are inseparably connected with other things, in which the subject of the service are alcoholic beverages, the price of which was agreed at the conclusion of the sales contract, and whose delivery may take place only after 30 days and whose value depends on fluctuations in the market over which the Seller has no control, in which the subject of the service are sound or visual recordings or computer programs delivered in a sealed package, if the package was opened after delivery, for delivering newspapers, periodicals or magazines, with the exception of subscription contracts, for the supply of digital content that is not saved on a tangible medium, if the performance of the service began with the express consent of the Consumer before the deadline to withdraw from the contract and after being informed by the Seller about the loss of the right to withdraw from the Contract,

Complaint and warranty

1. The Sale Agreement covers new Products.

2. In the event of a defect in the goods purchased from the Seller, the Customer has the right to make a complaint based on the provisions regarding warranty in the Civil Code.

3. Complaints should be submitted in writing or by e-mail to the addresses of the Seller provided in these Regulations.

4. It is recommended that the complaint include brief description of the defect, circumstances (including date) of its occurrence, data of the Customer submitting the complaint, and the Customer's request in relation to the defect of the goods.

5. The seller will respond to the complaint immediately, no later than within 14 days, and if he does not do so within this period, it is considered that the client's request was considered justified.

6. The Seller shall respond to the complaint request immediately, and if the Customer is a Consumer - no later than within 14 days. If the Customer is a Consumer and the Seller does not respond to the complaint within 14 days, it is considered that the Customer's request was considered justified

7. Goods returned under the complaint procedure should be sent to the address given in § 3 of these Regulations.

8. In the event that a product has been granted a warranty, information about it, as well as its content, will be included in the description of the Product in the Store. The Seller will also attach a warranty card to the Product sold.

Out-of-court complaint consideration and redress methods

1. Detailed information on the possibility for the Consumer to use extrajudicial means of dealing with complaints and redress as well as the rules of access to these procedures are available at the headquarters and on the websites of powiat (municipal) consumer ombudsmen, social organizations, whose statutory tasks include consumer protection, Provincial Inspectorates of Inspection Handlowa and at the following internet addresses of the Office of Competition and Consumer Protection: http://www.uokik.gov.pl/spory_konsumenckie.php; http://www.uokik.gov.pl/sprawcy_indywidualne.php and http://www.uokik.gov.pl/wazne_adresy.php. The consumer has the following examples of possibilities of using extrajudicial methods of dealing with complaints and redress:

The consumer is entitled to apply to a permanent amicable consumer court referred to in art. 37 of the Act of 15 December 2000 on the Trade Inspection (Journal of Laws of 2014, item 148, as amended), with a request to settle a dispute arising from the Agreement concluded with the Seller. The consumer is entitled to apply to the provincial inspector of Trade Inspection, in accordance with art. 36 of the Act of 15 December 2000 on Trade Inspection (Journal of Laws of 2014, item 148, as amended), with a request to initiate mediation proceedings regarding the amicable settlement of the dispute between the Consumer and the Seller.

The consumer may obtain free assistance in resolving the dispute between him and the Seller, also using the free assistance of the powiat (municipal) consumer ombudsman or social organization, whose statutory tasks include consumer protection (including the Consumer Federation, Association of Polish Consumers).

Personal data in the Online Store

1. The administrator of personal data of Customers collected through the Online Store is the Seller.
2. Customers' personal data collected by the administrator via the Online Store are collected in order to implement the Sales Agreement, and if the Customer agrees - also for marketing purposes.

3. The recipients of personal data of the Online Store customers may be:

In the case of a Customer who uses the Online Store with the method of delivery by post or courier, the Administrator provides the Customer's collected personal data to the selected carrier or intermediary performing the shipment at the request of the Administrator.

In the case of a Customer who uses the Online Store with the method of electronic payments or a payment card, the Administrator provides the Customer's collected personal data to the selected entity operating the above payments in the Online Store.

4. The Customer has the right to access their data and correct them.

5. Providing personal data is voluntary, although failure to provide the personal data indicated in the Regulations necessary to conclude a Sales Agreement results in the inability to conclude this agreement.

Final Provisions

1. Agreements concluded through the Online Store are concluded in Polish.

2. The Seller reserves the right to amend the Regulations for important reasons, that is: changes in the law, changes in payment and delivery methods - to the extent that these changes affect the implementation of the provisions of these Regulations. The Seller will inform the Customer about each change at least 7 days in advance.

3. In matters not covered by these Regulations, generally applicable provisions of Polish law shall apply, in particular: the Civil Code; Act on the provision of electronic services; Consumer Rights Act, Personal Data Protection Act.

4. The customer has the right to use extrajudicial means of dealing with complaints and redress. To this end, it may submit a complaint via the EU ODR online platform available at: <http://ec.europa.eu/consumers/odr/>.
